Endtime Prophecy: Why is the Third Temple so Important?

The Bible reveals that a new Temple will be rebuilt in Jerusalem and be a part of the most significant events of the Tribulation and the Millennial Kingdom. Current events that prepare for its rebuilding are signs that the signal event of the Temple is near and with it the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

The Temple will be rebuilt in the first half of Daniel's 70th Week (Dan. 9:24,27; Rev. 11:1-2)

The sacrificial system will be renewed at the Temple (Dan. 9:27b)

The Antichrist will invade the Temple and desecrate it with the Abomination of Desolation (Dan. 9:27; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:3-4; Rev. 11:2)

Christ will at His Second Advent to deliver it (Mal. 3:1; Zech. 14:3-4; Obad. 21)

Christ will purify and rebuild the Temple in the Kingdom (Dan. 12:11-12; Ezek. 37:26-28; 40-48)

Prophecies Related to the Temple Mount

1. Jews would return in unbelief to Jerusalem to reclaim their heritage and destiny (Ezekiel 36:24; Romans 11:27).
2. Jerusalem would regain its national status as “the capital of Israel” (Matthew 24:15-22).
3. Israeli Jews would rebuild Temple. (Mt. 24:15; Rev. 11:1-2).
4. Jerusalem would again be threatened by the Gentile nations (Ezekiel 38-39; Zechariah 12:2; 14:2).

The Temple Mount in Prophecy

“And he will make a firm covenant with the many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put a stop to sacrifice and grain offering; and on the wing of abomination will come one who makes desolate, even until a complete destruction, one that is decreed, is poured out on the one who makes desolate.” Daniel 9:27

Tribulation

And there was given me a measuring rod like a staff; and someone said, "Rise and measure the Temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it. And leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the nations; and they will tread under foot the holy city for forty-two months." Rev 11:1-2

“Therefore when you see the Abomination of Desolation which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the [Temple’s] holy place (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains ...”

Matthew 24:14–16

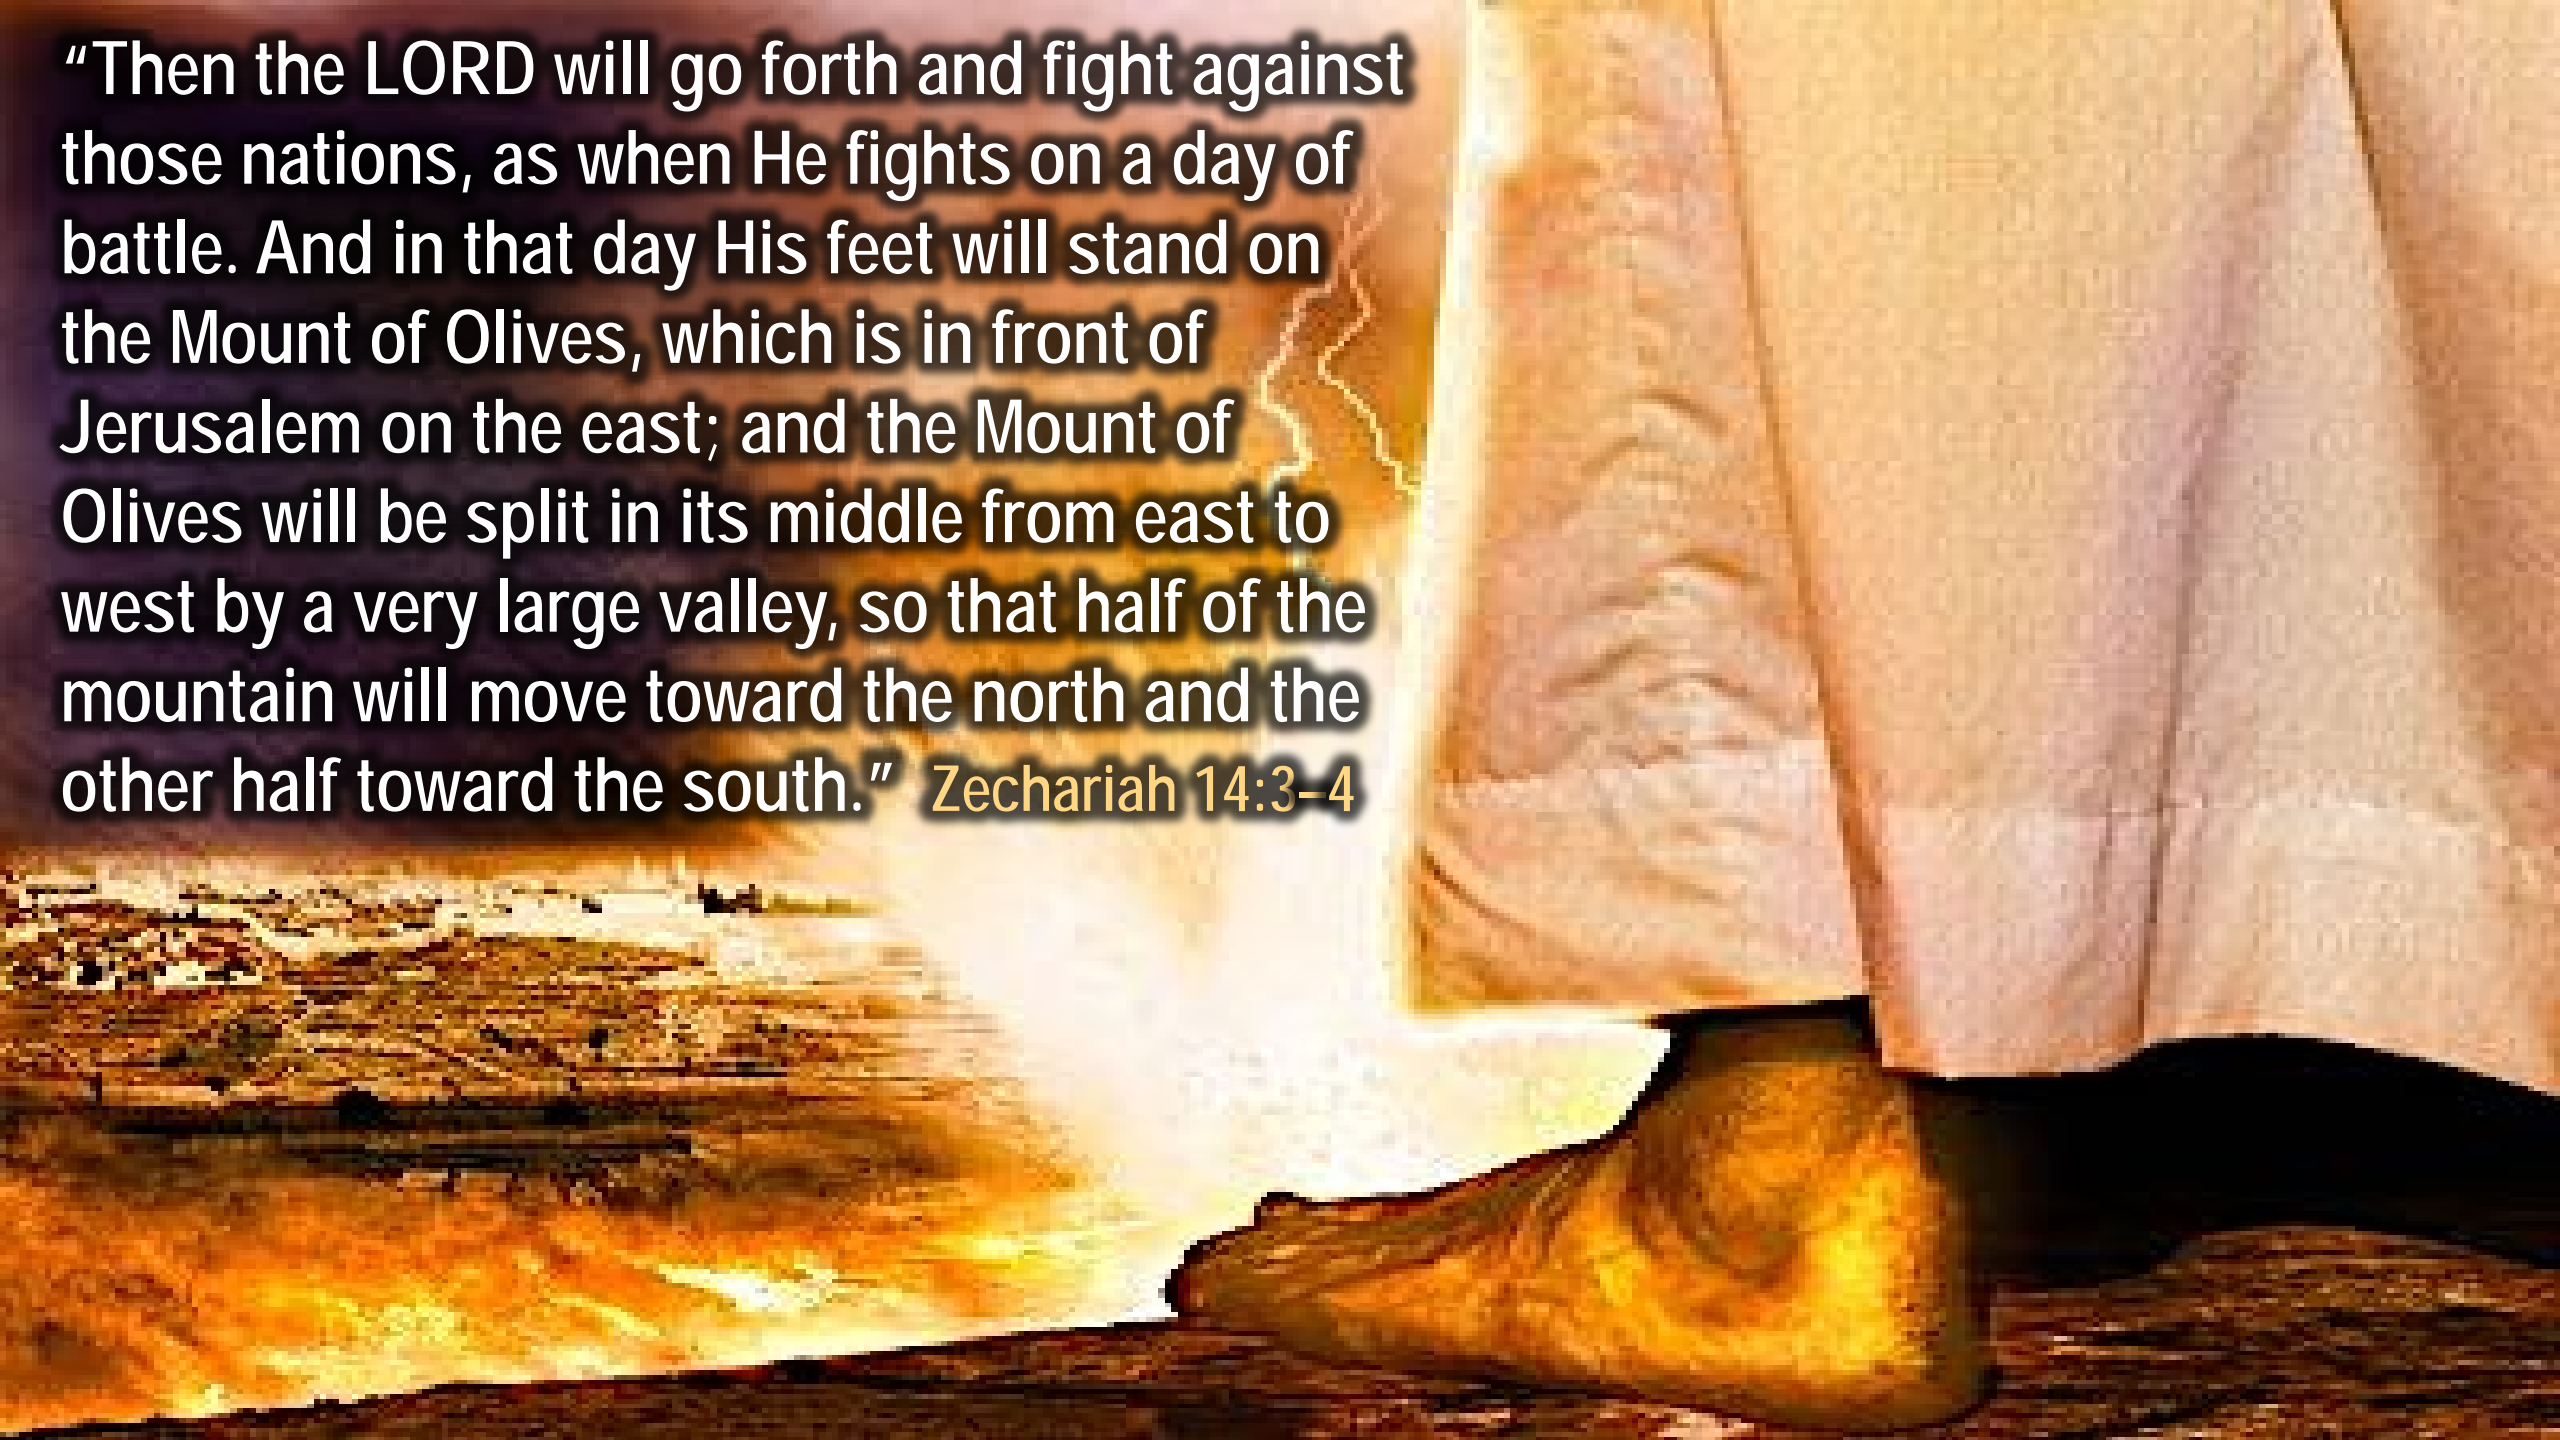

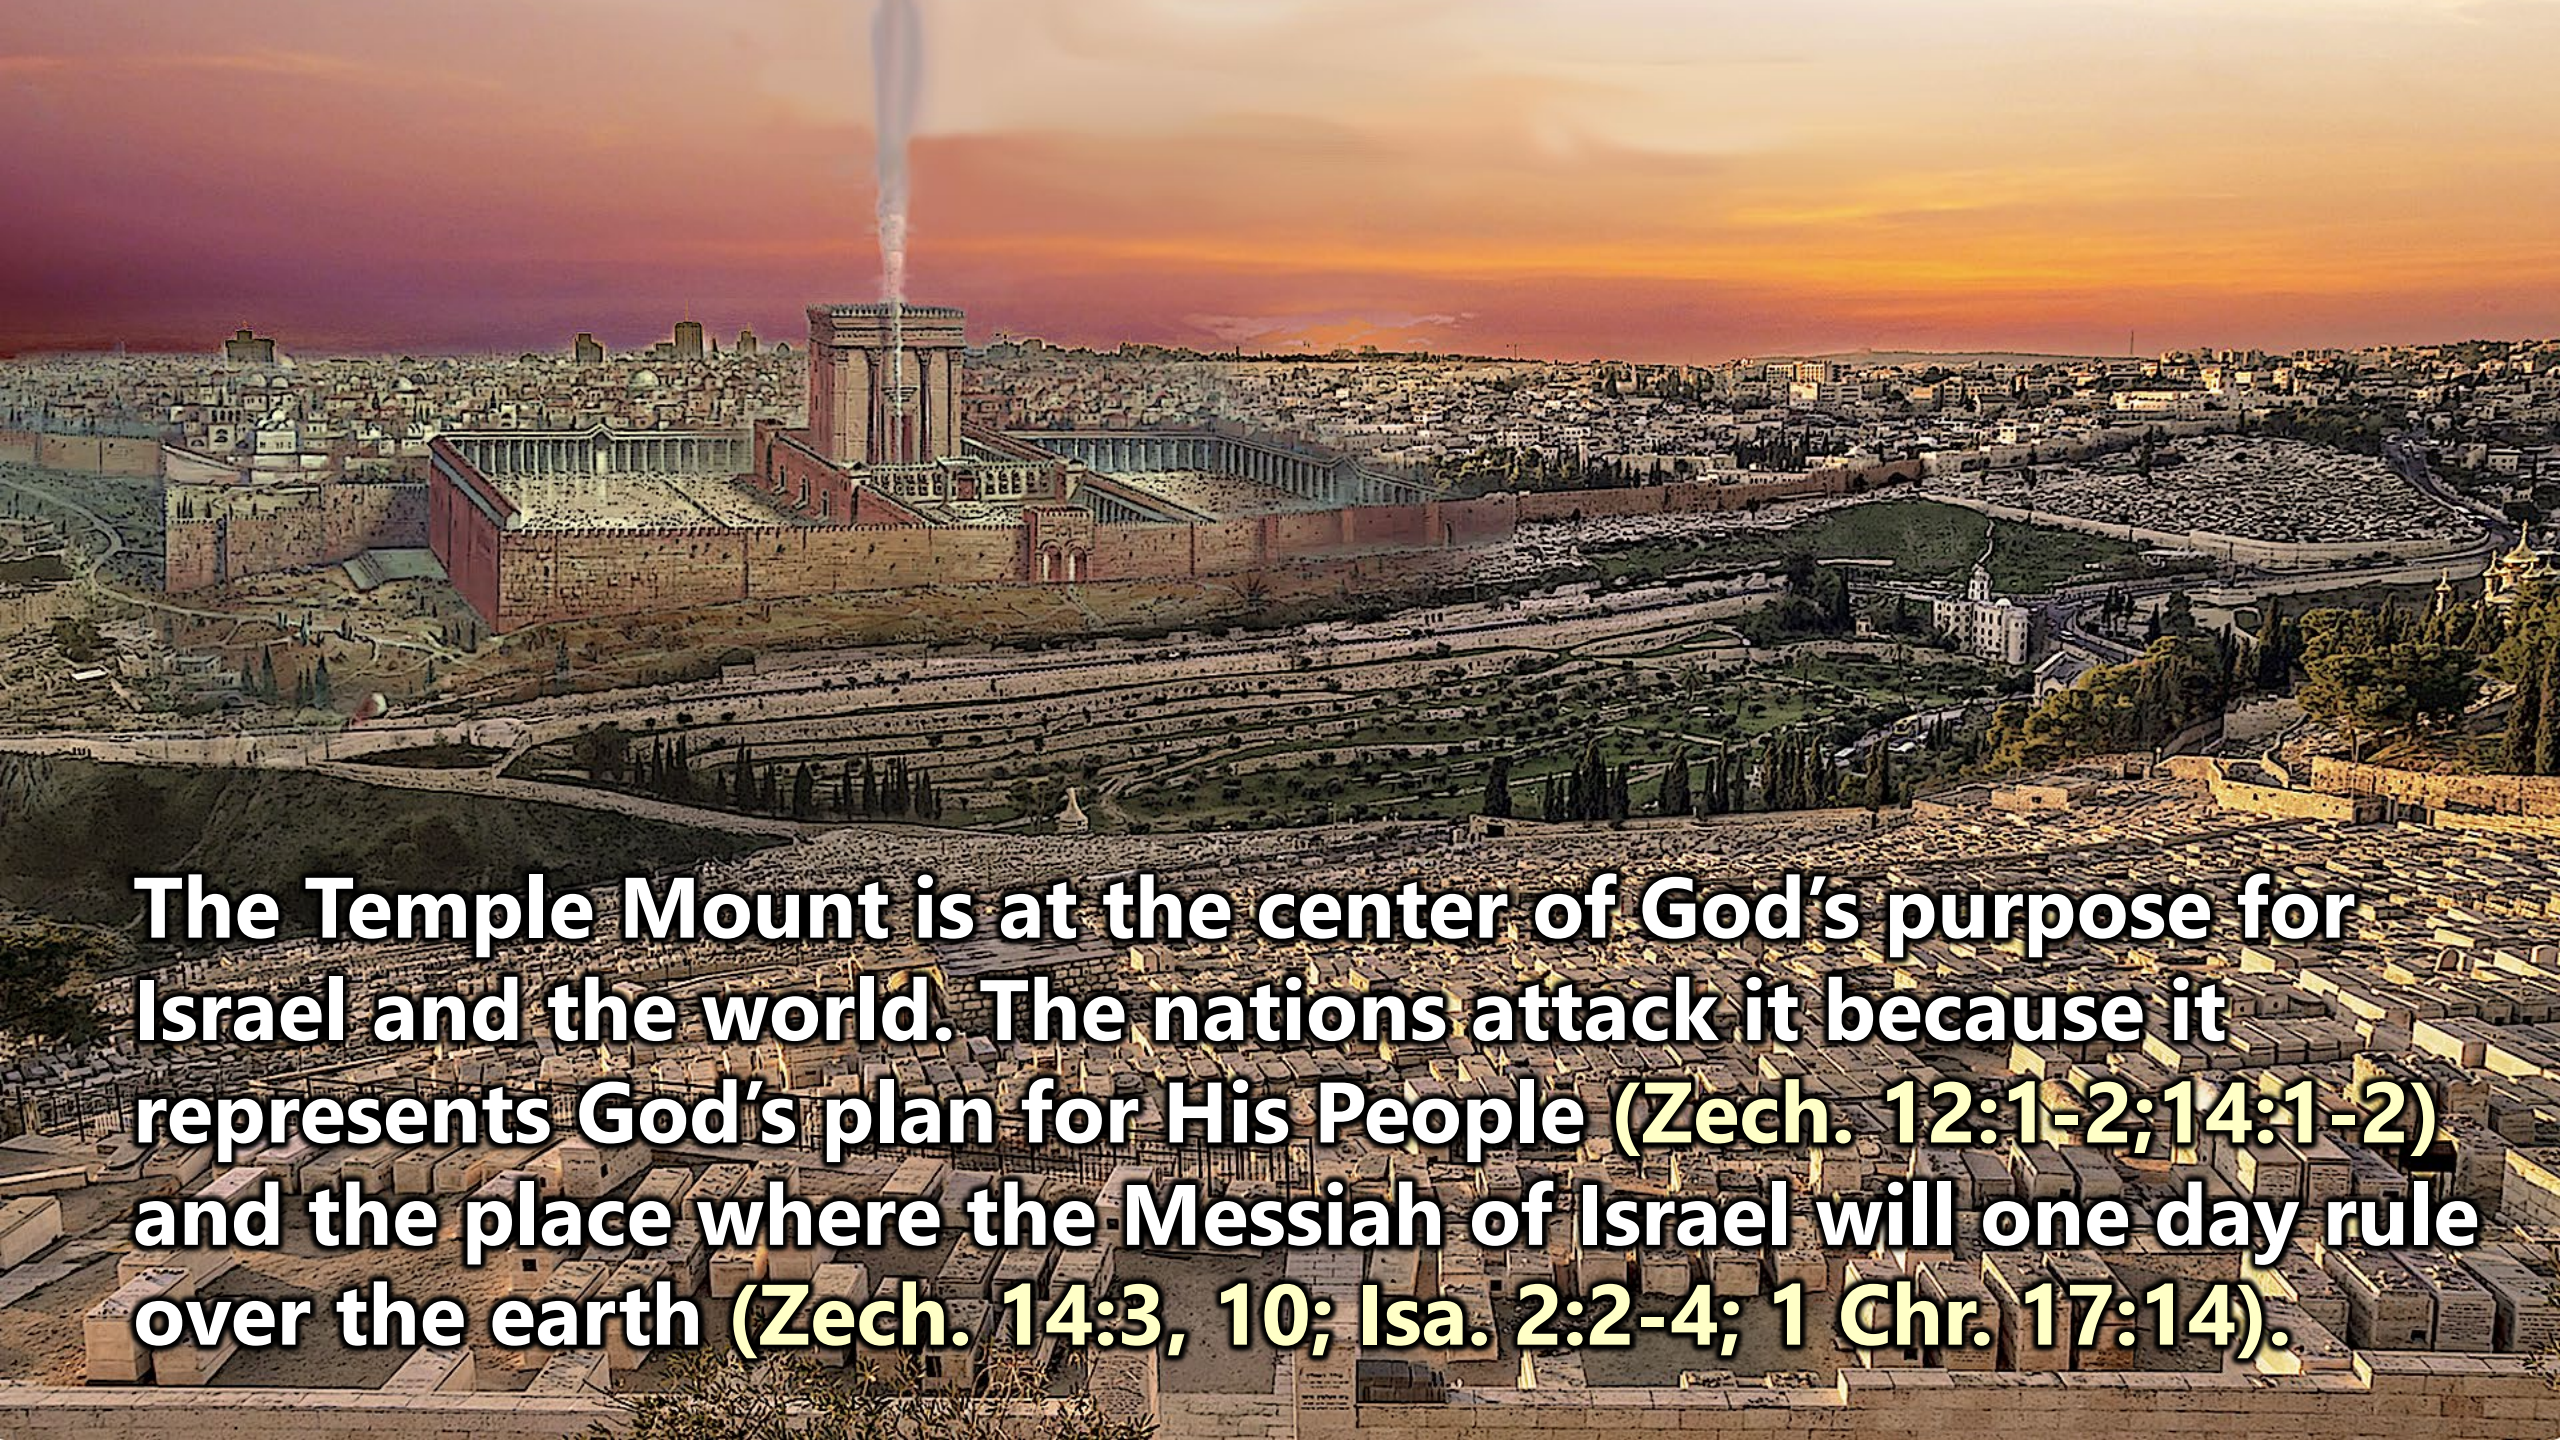

GREAT TRIBULATION

The background image is a composite of several elements. At the top, a large, bright orange and yellow celestial body, possibly a sun or a planet, is partially obscured by dark, swirling clouds. Below this, a city is silhouetted against a dark sky, with some lights visible. In the foreground, a large, dark dome, likely a mosque, is visible on the left. On the right, a lone figure stands on a hill, looking towards the city. The overall atmosphere is one of intense, fiery destruction.

“For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured, the houses plundered, the women ravished, and half of the city exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.” Zechariah 14:2

“Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as when He fights on a day of battle. And in that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is in front of Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in its middle from east to west by a very large valley, so that half of the mountain will move toward the north and the other half toward the south.” Zechariah 14:3-4

The Temple Mount is at the center of God's purpose for Israel and the world. The nations attack it because it represents God's plan for His People (Zech. 12:1-2; 14:1-2) and the place where the Messiah of Israel will one day rule over the earth (Zech. 14:3, 10; Isa. 2:2-4; 1 Chr. 17:14).

Could the Rebuilding of the Third Temple Be a Sign That the Rapture is Closer?

Sixbert SANGWA • October 31, 2024

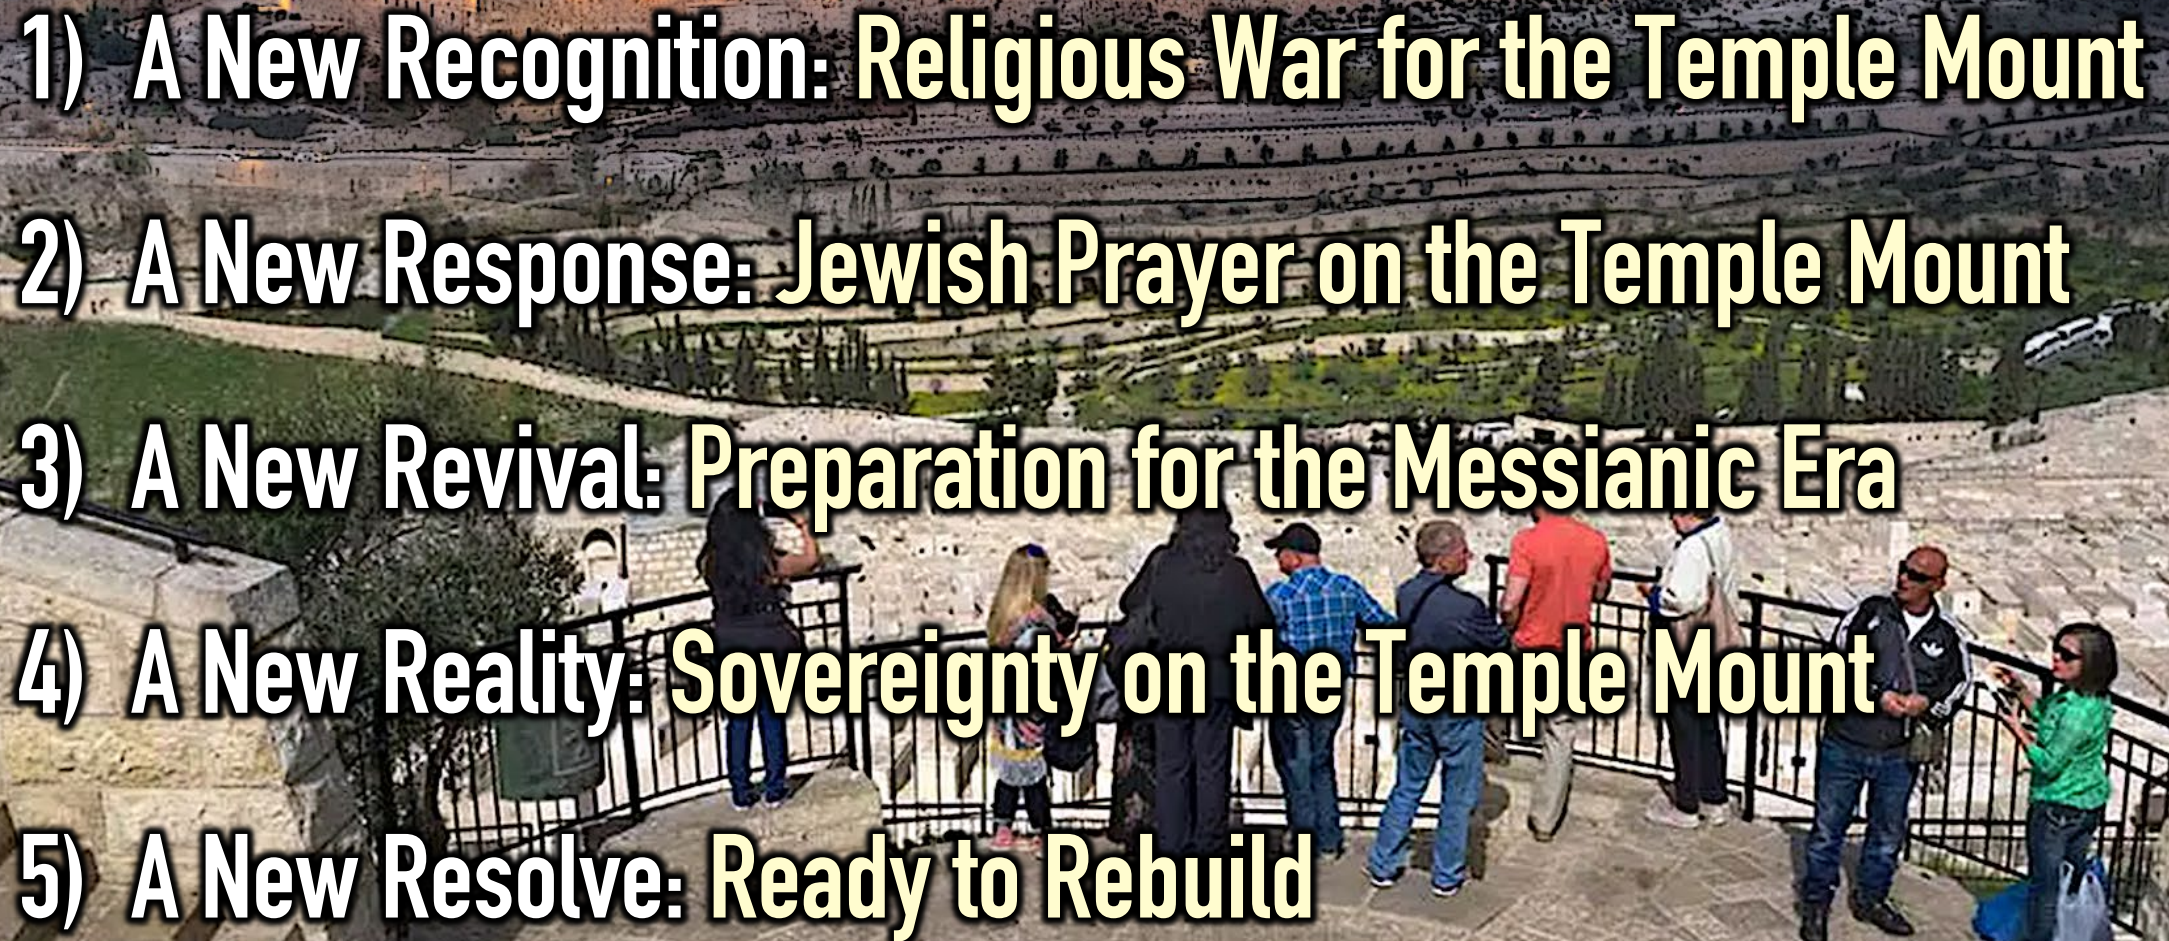

The recent developments in Jerusalem regarding plans to rebuild the Third Temple have reignited debates among religious scholars, historians, and global watchers. This sacred site, Mount Moriah—housing both the Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock—has a complex history of division and contention between the Jewish and Muslim faiths (Dena Takruri, 2022; Henry, 2022). Many now ask whether the strategic division of this holy land, instigated by powerful political forces and secret societies, was a calculated move to ignite a Third World War that would usher in a New World Order. The suggestion that the rebuilding of the Third Temple and related escalating conflicts could signal the approaching rapture is not unfounded, especially as we examine the prophetic links, historical context, and intentions of influential global forces.

The Stage is Set for the Endtime War Against Israel

Israel is now experiencing the most critical stage in the process of redemption since its founding in 1948. This will lead to the end-time climax of the redemption process: The building of the Temple of G-d on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem and the coming of Mashiach ben David, the end-time Messenger of God.

WAR FOR THE TEMPLE MOUNT!

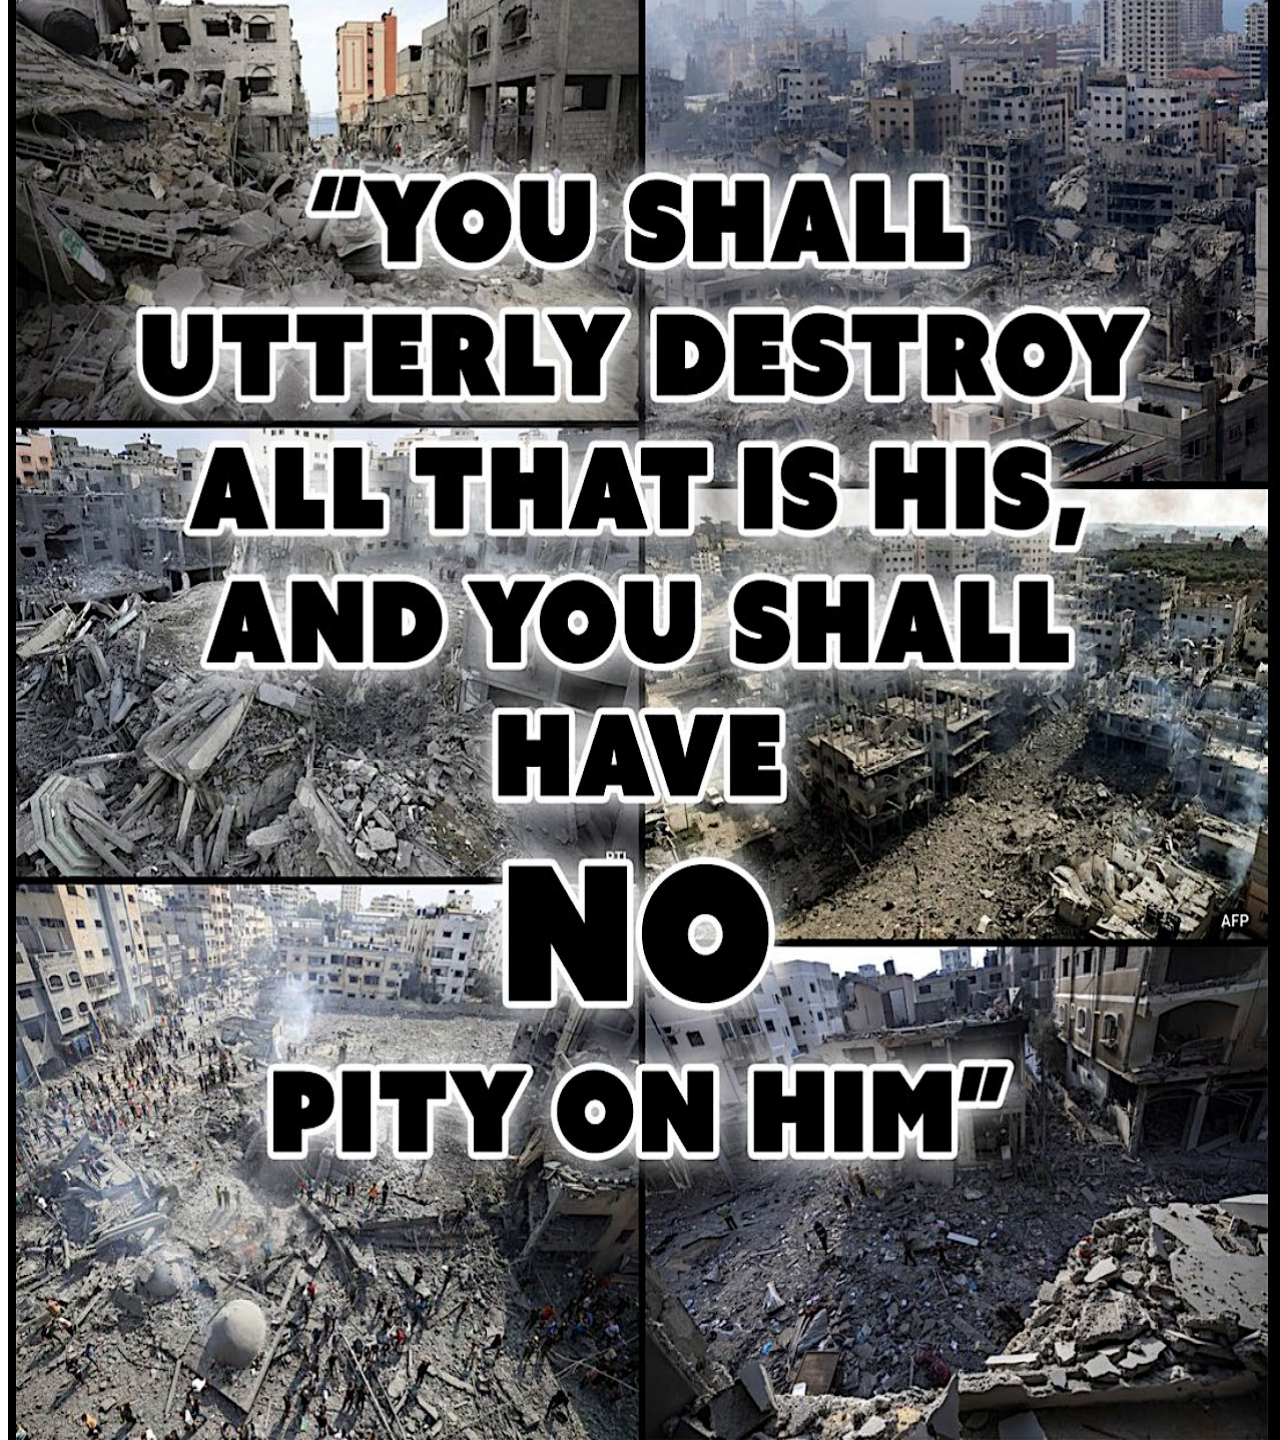

Many of our IDF soldiers in Gaza and in the north are sporting patches on their uniforms depicting the Holy Temple, expressing a clear statement of what this war is really about. Hamas made it clear from the start when they named their barbaric attack on Israeli citizens, men, women and children, "the al Aqsa flood," al Aqsa being the jihadist nomenclature for the Temple Mount. Yes, Iranian backed Hamas, as well as Iran's other terror proxies are waging war against Israel, against Jerusalem, against the Holy Temple and all that the Holy Temple stands for: peace, brotherhood, prayer and love for HaShem's world. Israel's fight is a fight for the future of the entire world and the Holy Temple represents the potential for good in the world. The IDF soldiers who are wearing the Temple patch know exactly what they are fighting for and why: 'A house of prayer for all nations!' (Isaiah 56:7)

In Israel's army, more officers are now religious.

The percentage of officer cadets who are religious has grown 10-fold since the early 1990s.

They dream of rebuilding the Temple, re-instituting animal sacrifices, and a Jewish religious monopoly over one of the world's most contentious, incendiary sites, the Temple Mount/Al-Aqsa Mosque. Netanyahu: 'Jerusalem and Temple Mount problem is insoluble'

There is no solution for the problem that Jerusalem and the Temple Mount pose within the context of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu told the Center for American Progress in Washington Tuesday.

Why it matters that Jews are standing on the Temple Mount

Jews are increasingly staking a claim to the Muslim-controlled Temple Mount, testing the Israeli government's resolve to avoid conflict by protecting Muslim sovereignty over the site.

It is noteworthy to recall that on the day of the Temple Mount's capture during the Six Day War, Rabbi Goren, who reached the site with the first Israeli Paratroopers, urged Defense Minister Moshe Dayan to take advantage of the moment and blow up the Shrine of the Dome which was built over the site of the Temple. Dayan refused. To see the place of the Temple in the hands of foreigners and enemies and not be able to reach it ... To pray the prayers that deal with Yom Kippur, the avodah of the priests and the Temple service from such a short distance away yet still so painfully beyond our reach... there is also a feeling of great anguish that the main thing is lacking and that our Redemption is not yet complete.

Right-wing Israeli groups are seeking to fulfil a Jewish prophecy by sacrificing a flawless red heifer on Jerusalem's Mount of Olives to pave the way for the construction of the Third Temple at the site currently occupied by the Al-Aqsa Mosque compound.

ISRAEL – While political experts worldwide pontificate on the war in Gaza, most have overlooked Hamas' explicitly stated reason for its Oct. 7 attacks on Israel, revealed on Day 100 of the war.

Incredibly, according to the terror group's military spokesman, it has to do with attempting to prevent the "ceremony of the Red Heifer" – a mysterious event of great meaning to both Jews and Christians.

Arabs are up in arms over a supposed Israeli government plan to destroy the Al-Aqsa Mosque by rebuilding the Third Temple in its place in Jerusalem, following a Saturday report on Channel 12 that several ministries are funding efforts to raise a red heifer, which is considered a prerequisite for the coming of the Messiah.

Holy War: Red Cows, Gaza and the End of the World

It is said that this is where the world began—and perhaps where it will end.

The true epicenter of the war in the Holy Land is not the devastated Gaza Strip, under Israeli assault since Hamas' bloody raid last October sparked the region's deadliest conflict in decades. It is a few dozen miles away in Jerusalem, at the holiest and most fiercely contested hilltop on Earth. The war has increased religious tensions and given new impetus to a group of Jews and their evangelical Christian allies who are set on rebuilding an ancient temple where millennium-old Islamic shrines now stand—a suggestion that arouses the horror not only of Palestinians and Muslims worldwide, but of many Jews in Israel and around the globe as well as that of would-be Middle East peacemakers.

Third Temple advocates have been preparing for the day when the temple can be rebuilt, complete with rabbinically-certified red cows shipped from Texas for use in sacrificial purification rituals. The architectural designs are all ready, along the lines of the detailed Biblical descriptions. Robes have been woven and utensils assembled to Biblical specifications for ceremonies at the planned temple.

Jews across the globe mourn the destruction of the first two Holy Temples that stood in Jerusalem 2,000 years ago. Yearning for the rebuilding plays a central role in the traditional prayers and scripture of the Jewish people. But how many are serious about physically rebuilding the actual structure?

Israel Defense Minister: These are the Days of the Third Temple!

Biblical and prophetic themes play a big role in Israeli politics
By Israel Today Staff | Feb 18, 2020

Israel Defense Minister Naftali Bennett last Wednesday insisted that these are the days of the Third Temple, and that the modern State of Israel is very much a part of the prophesied global redemption.

Speaking at a yeshiva (Jewish seminary) in the north of Israel ahead of next month's election, Bennett explained why he was trying to keep another religious right-wing politician out of the Knesset.

According to Bennett, the controversial Itamar Ben Gvir, like many Orthodox Jews, fails to recognize the biblical and prophetic significance and authority of the State of Israel and its institutions.

Bennett went on to explain that despite its long history, Israel has only managed to rule as a unified nation in this land for two very short periods, and that because of internal divisions and the failure to submit to a central authority.

"We have had a state twice where we ruled as a united people. The first time it only lasted 80 years – King David 40, then King Solomon 40. After that, we separated," said Bennett. "The second time, we were sovereign for only 74 years during the Hasmonean dynasty." (See: "How Long Will Israel's Third Kingdom Survive?")

Likewise, the Second Temple was destroyed because everyone "followed their own rules," the defense minister said, before exclaiming, "We need to understand the big picture. Today we are in the time of the Third Temple!"

Yes, the State of Israel is a liberal, largely-secular democracy. And yet, faith in the Bible and belief in the prophecies it contains regarding this nation continue to play a major role in Israeli politics.

President-elect Donald Trump's nominee for secretary of defense Pete Hegseth suggested that a temple could be re-established on the Temple Mount in a resurfaced speech he gave in 2018 at the Arutz Sheva conference in Jerusalem.

"There's no reason why the miracle of the re-establishment of the temple on the Temple Mount is not possible," Hegseth said.

Will this current war result in Israel occupying the Temple Mount as a first step toward the rebuilding of the Temple?

Jews are Ready to Rebuild Temple

Updated: May 26, 2020

All they wait for now, is permission. Will President Trump give it upon re-election?

That would give Israel 3 1/2 (half a Shemittah) years to build the Temple complex and be completed by the 7th year (Shemittah) of 2024, marking exactly 7 years since President Trump fulfilled prophecy by acknowledging Israel's claim to Jerusalem in making it their capital city and moving the US embassy there. It will also be 7 years since Jewish Sanhedrin sent requests to both President Trump and Putin to support this effort in building their Temple.

Remember that the Shemittah or number 7, is a very sacred number to the Jews. It is God's number. This would also match the 2024 mark that ends the Tribulations and the beginning of the Great Tribulations as well as the mid-point of the two rare solar eclipses that are 7 years apart. Only time will tell.

The Second Coming, brought to you by — who else? Donald Trump

“Anyone happen to know where I can get hold of 13 young bullocks, two rams and 14 yearling lambs without blemish? I’m asking in order to prepare for the construction of the Third Temple in Jerusalem, as prophesied in the Bible, a precondition for the end times and the Rapture and the Second Coming, all set in motion by a proclamation from Donald Trump.”

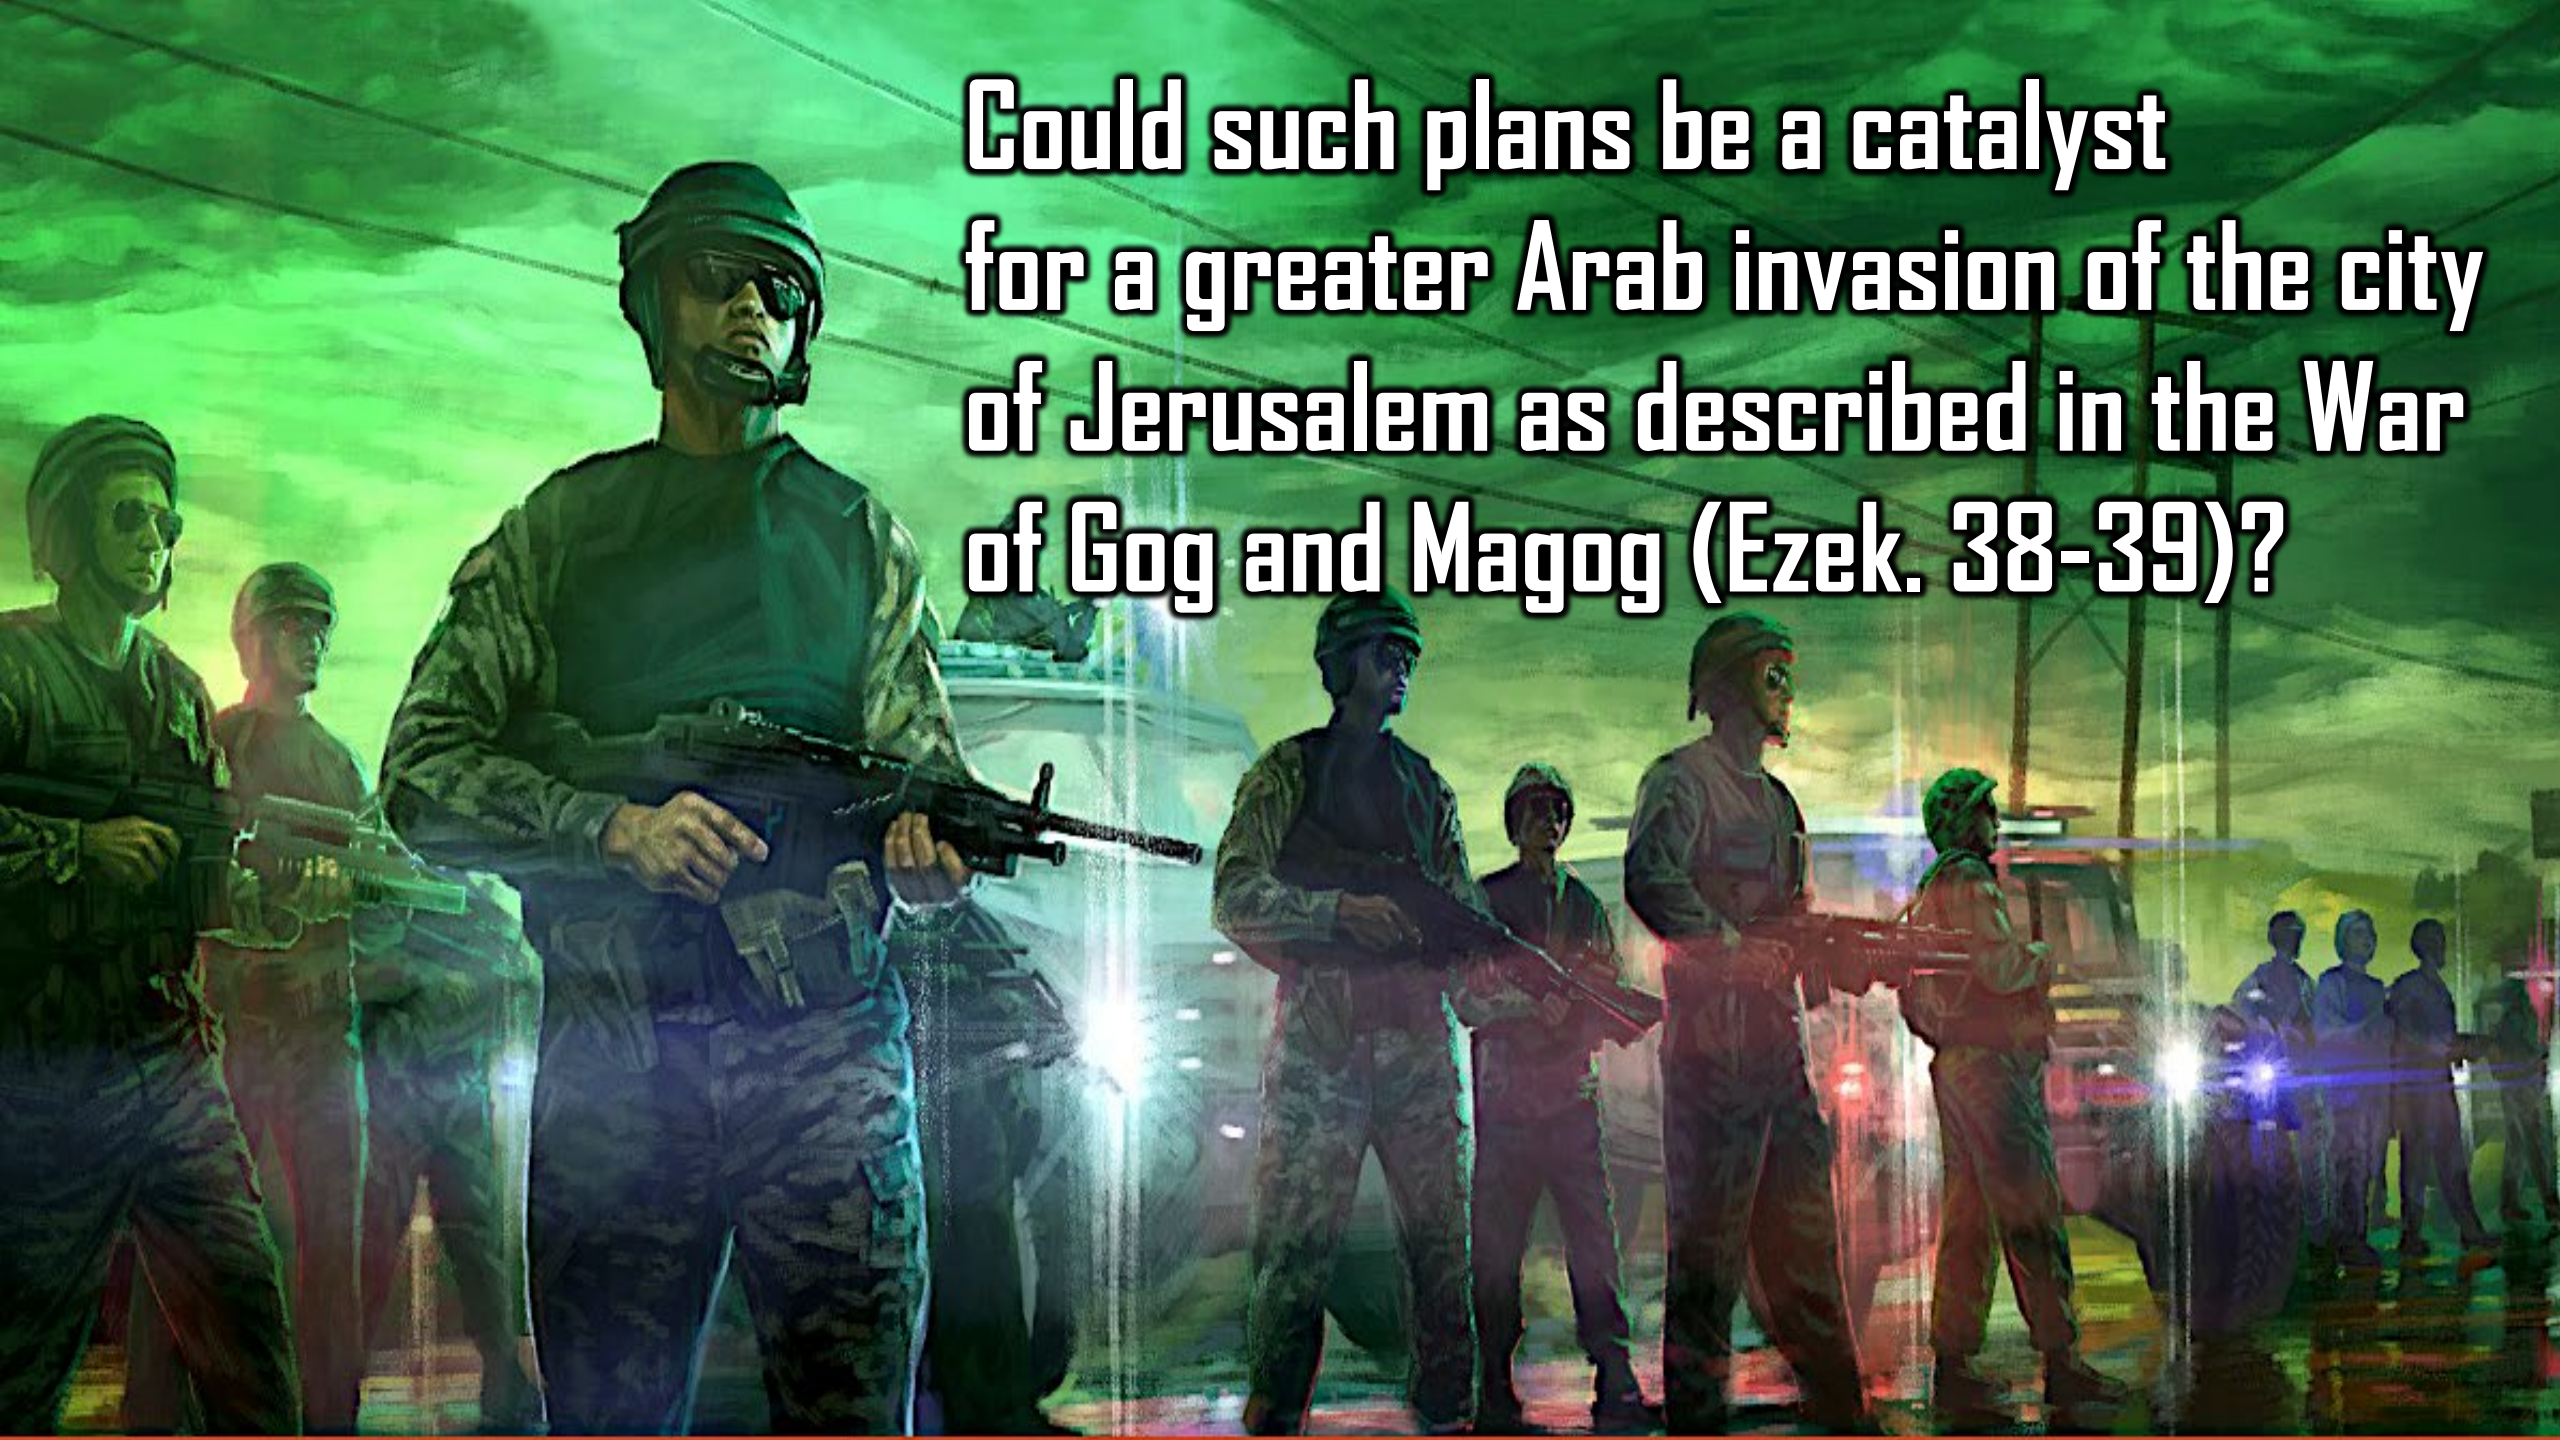

What Could the End of the War Hold for Jerusalem and the Temple Mount?

Will the Israeli public link the October 7 massacre and war with Jewish rights to the Temple Mount?

Will Israel decide that Jerusalem, its eternal capital, and the Temple Mount, Judaism's holiest site on earth, must be secured under Israeli sovereignty to maintain its security?

Will Israel ban Muslims from the Al-Aqsa as Muslims have banned Jews from the Temple Mount?

Will Israel now decide that peace is only possible (for Jews) if Jerusalem and the Temple Mount is under the exclusive control of Jews? It seems a radical prospect, but nothing has shaken Israel in the past 75 years like the new Holocaust they experienced from their Palestinian neighbors, who have continued to praise October 7 and call for Israel's destruction.

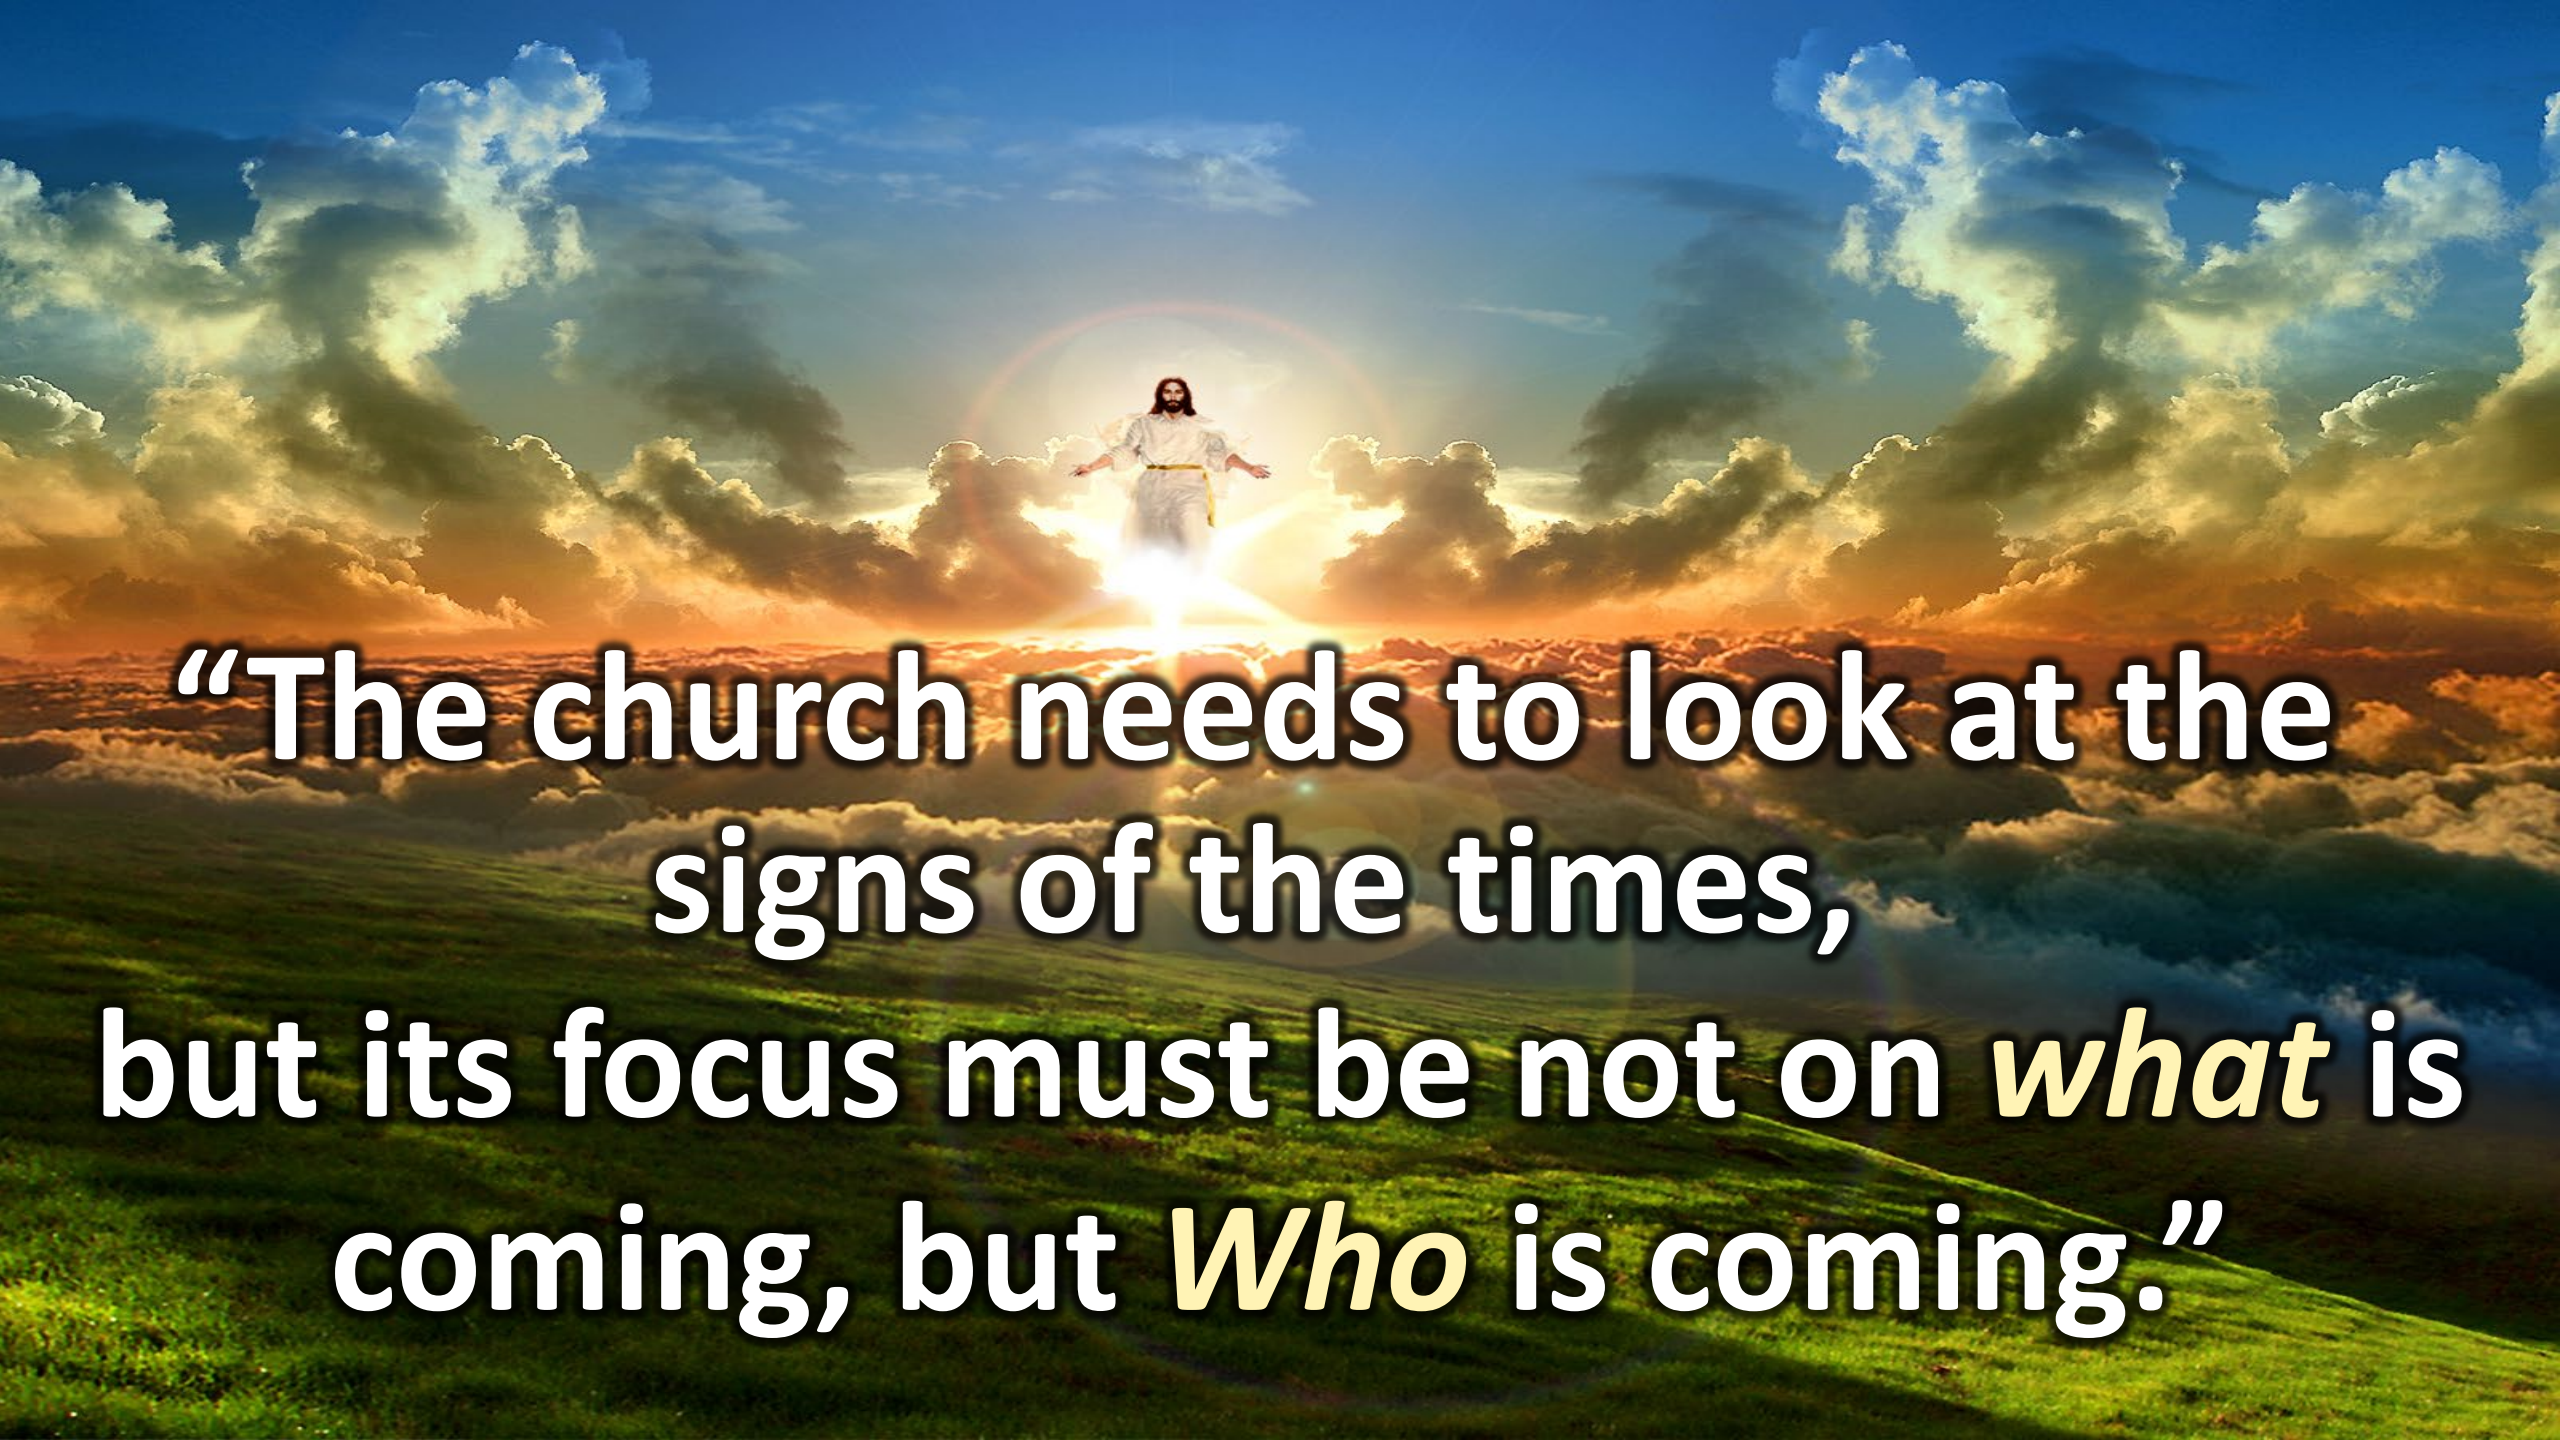

Could such plans be a catalyst for a greater Arab invasion of the city of Jerusalem as described in the War of Gog and Magog (Ezek. 38-39)?
